1 MR. TROY: No, sir. Well, Your Honor, I don't
2 know the answer to that, because Mr. Braden indicates he
3 represents the speaker and the House of Delegates as an
4 entity but not necessarily every member of the House of
5 Delegates is -- I thought that was his position.

6 MR. BRADEN: And that is -- this is Mark Braden.
7 That is our position. We simply do not know whether these
8 12 members -- it would be our view that absent them
9 waiving legislative privilege, it would be unlikely that 10 we could depose them. So it's really a question, in our 11 mind, as to the scope of discovery, as to the scope of the 12 proposed or likely evidentiary presentation by the 13 plaintiff.

14 THE COURT: Well, is it correct or not correct
15 that the individual delegates were consulted by the people
16 who drew -- responsible for drawing up the district and --

17 MR. BRADEN: The answer --

18 THE COURT: Excuse me. And that those people
19 actually provided their views on whether the district was 20 appropriate or not?

21 MR. BRADEN: Mark Braden. I believe in most
22 cases, that factually is correct. I do not know about all
23 of the districts, but I do believe for most, if not all,
24 the individual members, as part of the legislative
25 process, were consulted in the drawing of the plan, yes.

1 THE COURT: And there are 12 of those people;
2 right?

3 MR. BRADEN: That are 12 of those, yes.

4 THE COURT: And they are not represented in this
5 action even though they are current members of the House
6 of Delegates?

7 MR. BRADEN: We represent the House of Delegates.
8 We do not necessarily represent any individual member
9 other than the speaker.

10 THE COURT: How can you represent the House of 11 Delegates and not represent the 12 delegates therein whose
12 seats are being challenged? I'm having trouble with that.

13 MR. BRADEN: Well, the issue is, I believe, the 14 notion of whether or not we would actually represent their 15 interests and whether they would wish us to represent
16 them. The reality, of course, in this case, is that there
17 is the elephant in the room and the donkey in the room
18 which is this is a very partisan matter, so the interest
19 of the individual members of the house who might be of a
20 different party than the majority who voted for it might 21 have a different interest than the actual House of 22 Delegates.

23 Clearly, the House of Delegates has an interest
24 in preserving the plan that it passed. That does not
25 necessarily mean each individual member of the House

1 shares that individual interest.

2 THE COURT: Well, have they been asked whether
3 they -- or do you know whether those 12 people want
4 representation or are going to appear by counsel at all?

5 MR. BRADEN: I have not spoken to any of the 6 actual 12 members, although we have discussed that with
7 the speaker and do intend to contact them, but we are not
8 presently representing them.

9 THE COURT: How many of the 12 are Democrats and
10 how many are Republicans and how many Independents?

11 MR. BRADEN: Mark Braden. I believe all of the 12 12 are members of the Democratic Party. I believe that's 13 correct.

14 MR. TROY: Your Honor, Tony Troy. Some of them,
15 I can think of one or two examples, were not in office
16 when the 2011 plan was adopted. One specific is due this
17 year, and the seat that was previously held, that person
18 is now in the state Senate.

19 THE COURT: But they're all Democrats; is that
20 right?

21 MR. TROY: Your Honor, Tony Troy. I believe that
22 is correct.

23 THE COURT: Well, is there any reason you all
24 can't talk to these people?

25 MR. TROY: Your Honor, Tony Troy. I just wanted

Each TIFF document shall be produced with an image load file in standard Opticon (.log) format that reflects the parent / child relationship. In addition, each TIFF document shall also be produced with a data load file in Concordance delimited format (.dat), indicating (at a minimum) appropriate unitization of the documents, including beginning and ending production numbers

All images and load files must be named or put in folders in such a manner that all records can be imported without modification of any path or file name information.

21. If you contend that it would be unreasonably burdensome to obtain and provide all of the documents called for, then:

- a. Produce all such documents as are available to you without undertaking what you contend to be an unreasonable request;
- b. Describe with particularity the efforts made by you or on your behalf to produce such documents, including, without limitation, identification of persons consulted, description of files, records and documents reviewed, and identification of each person who participated in the gathering of such documents, with specification of the amount of time spent and the nature of work done by such person; and
- c. State with particularity the grounds upon which you contend that additional efforts to produce such documents would be unreasonable.

22. With respect to any document withheld from production on a claim of privilege or work product protection, please provide a written privilege log identifying each document individually and containing all information required by Rule 26(b)(5) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

EXHIBIT E

Dear Delegate:

We respectively represent the Plaintiffs and the Virginia House of Delegates and Speaker Howell in the case of Bethune-Hill v. Virginia State Board of Elections, No. 3:14-cv-00852, currently pending in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. Plaintiffs have challenged House of Delegates Districts 63, 69, 70, 71, 74, 75, 77, 80, 89, 90, 92, and 95 as racial gerrymanders in violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. The Virginia House of Delegates and Speaker William J. Howell (“Intervenors”) have intervened as defendants in this matter. Counsel for the Virginia House of Delegates and Speaker Howell (“Intervenors’ counsel”) do not represent you or any individual delegate other than Speaker Howell in these proceedings. As such, you may wish to consider consulting your own legal counsel in regard to this matter.

This letter is to notify you that, in accordance with the Court’s scheduling order, Plaintiffs have served discovery requests seeking documents within the possession, custody, or control of the Virginia House of Delegates regarding the 2011 House of Delegates redistricting process. Intervenors’ counsel have conducted searches of documents within the House’s possession, custody, or control and determined that one or more emails you have written or received are responsive to Plaintiffs’ requests.¹ This process is ongoing and Intervenors’ counsel may identify additional responsive documents after the date of this correspondence.

At this time, Intervenors are withholding these emails on the basis of legislative privilege, which belongs to individual members of a legislative body such that it is up to each individual delegate to assert or waive his/her legislative privilege. Waiver of the privilege will result in production of your responsive email communications and may result in you being called as a witness in this proceeding. Intervenors have produced certain responsive documents to and from Speaker Howell and Del. Chris Jones, who have waived legislative privilege in this case with respect to their communications and testimony.

We collectively request that you inform us in writing no later than noon on April 10, 2015, whether you intend to assert or waive legislative privilege with respect to your email communications in this case.

Intervenors have taken the position that they will not produce these documents unless and until they receive from you an express waiver of legislative privilege. This means that Intervenors will not voluntarily produce your email communications unless you respond to this letter as set forth below, in writing, waiving your legislative privilege. Plaintiffs have taken the position that Intervenors must produce these documents no later than April 8, 2015 if you have not notified the Court and the parties in writing (for example, by filing a motion in this case) that you are asserting a legislative privilege. Plaintiffs intend to file a motion to compel production of these documents with the Court if Intervenors do not produce the documents by April 8th. Thus, even if you assert the legislative privilege in this case, the Court may order the Intervenors to produce your email communications to the Plaintiffs.

¹ Please contact Intervenors’ counsel if you would like to see any of the emails sent to or from you deemed responsive so far.

In the interest of an efficient resolution of this discovery issue, we ask that you respond to this letter via email to both Intervenor's counsel (at jwalrath@bakerlaw.com) and Plaintiffs' counsel (at RSpear@perkinscoie.com) at your earliest convenience, and in any event no later than noon on April 10, 2015, with your position.

Very truly yours,

Ms. Walrath and Mr. Spear:

This email will serve as my INITIAL response to your email below and letter attached:

1. I reserve my right to retain and consult with my own legal counsel;
2. Given that I have not retained, nor consulted with my own legal counsel (or any other counsel...legal or other), I do not, at this time, assert or waive my legislative privilege in this case. As such, going forward, I solely retain the right to assert or waive my legislative privilege. I ask that you, Intervenor's counsel, continue "withholding these emails on the basis of legislative privilege" until I assert or waive my legislative privilege to them;
3. Sending me the below email at 7:12 PM on Tuesday, April 6, 2015 and asking me to respond "no later than noon on April 10, 2015", or in 3.5 days is an unreasonable request (and I, as a legal layman, would initially think it is legally unenforceable). Your request is especially unreasonable given that it is the week after Easter when so many (including lawyers) are on Spring Break and I do not possess (much less my legal counsel possesses) my "responsive" emails that are the subject of your discovery;
4. Per your letter attached, I "would like to see (possesses in digital form per me) any (all per me) emails sent to or from you (me per me) deemed responsive so far". Please email me, all my "responsive" emails at this email address with a Cc to deljmassie@house.virginia.gov. Please also email me any "additional responsive documents after the date of this correspondence";
5. With respect to future communication, please use jpm.72@house.virginia.gov as my primary email address and always Cc deljmassie@house.virginia.gov.

Please acknowledge receipt of this email via reply email.

Dear Delegate:

We respectively represent the Plaintiffs and the Virginia House of Delegates and Speaker Howell in the case of Bethune-Hill v. Virginia State Board of Elections, No. 3:14-cv-00852, currently pending in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. Plaintiffs have challenged House of Delegates Districts 63, 69, 70, 71, 74, 75, 77, 80, 89, 90, 92, and 95 as racial gerrymanders in violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. The Virginia House of Delegates and Speaker William J. Howell (“Intervenors”) have intervened as defendants in this matter. Counsel for the Virginia House of Delegates and Speaker Howell (“Intervenors’ counsel”) do not represent you or any individual delegate other than Speaker Howell in these proceedings. As such, you may wish to consider consulting your own legal counsel in regard to this matter.

This letter is to notify you that, in accordance with the Court’s scheduling order, Plaintiffs have served discovery requests seeking documents within the possession, custody, or control of the Virginia House of Delegates regarding the 2011 House of Delegates redistricting process. Intervenors’ counsel have conducted searches of documents within the House’s possession, custody, or control and determined that one or more emails you have written or received are responsive to Plaintiffs’ requests.¹ This process is ongoing and Intervenors’ counsel may identify additional responsive documents after the date of this correspondence.

At this time, Intervenors are withholding these emails on the basis of legislative privilege, which belongs to individual members of a legislative body such that it is up to each individual delegate to assert or waive his/her legislative privilege. Waiver of the privilege will result in production of your responsive email communications and may result in you being called as a witness in this proceeding. Intervenors have produced certain responsive documents to and from Speaker Howell and Del. Chris Jones, who have waived legislative privilege in this case with respect to their communications and testimony.

We collectively request that you inform us in writing no later than noon on April 10, 2015, whether you intend to assert or waive legislative privilege with respect to your email communications in this case.

Intervenors have taken the position that they will not produce these documents unless and until they receive from you an express waiver of legislative privilege. This means that Intervenors will not voluntarily produce your email communications unless you respond to this letter as set forth below, in writing, waiving your legislative privilege. Plaintiffs have taken the position that Intervenors must produce these documents no later than April 8, 2015 if you have not notified the Court and the parties in writing (for example, by filing a motion in this case) that you are asserting a legislative privilege. Plaintiffs intend to file a motion to compel production of these documents with the Court if Intervenors do not produce the documents by April 8th. Thus, even if you assert the legislative privilege in this case, the Court may order the Intervenors to produce your email communications to the Plaintiffs.

¹ Please contact Intervenors’ counsel if you would like to see any of the emails sent to or from you deemed responsive so far.

In the interest of an efficient resolution of this discovery issue, we ask that you respond to this letter via email to both Intervenor's counsel (at jwalrath@bakerlaw.com) and Plaintiffs' counsel (at RSpear@perkinscoie.com) at your earliest convenience, and in any event no later than noon on April 10, 2015, with your position.

Intervenors have produced certain responsive documents to and from Speaker Howell and Del. Chris Jones, who have waived legislative privilege in this case with respect to their communications and testimony.

We collectively request that you inform us in writing no later than noon on April 10, 2015, whether you intend to assert or waive legislative privilege with respect to your email communications in this case.

Intervenors have taken the position that they will not produce these documents unless and until they receive from you an express waiver of legislative privilege. This means that Intervenors will not voluntarily produce your email communications unless you respond to this letter as set forth below, in writing, waiving your legislative privilege. Plaintiffs have taken the position that Intervenors must produce these documents no later than April 8, 2015 if you have not notified the Court and the parties in writing (for example, by filing a motion in this case) that you are asserting a legislative privilege. Plaintiffs intend to file a motion to compel production of these documents with the Court if Intervenors do not produce the documents by April 8th. Thus, even if you assert the legislative privilege in this case, the Court may order the Intervenors to produce your email communications to the Plaintiffs.

¹ Please contact Intervenors' counsel if you would like to see any of the emails sent to or from you deemed responsive so far.

In the interest of an efficient resolution of this discovery issue, we ask that you respond to this letter via email to both Intervenor's counsel (at jwalrath@bakerlaw.com) and Plaintiffs' counsel (at RSpear@perkinscoie.com) at your earliest convenience, and in any event no later than noon on April 10, 2015, with your position.

Ms. Walrath and Mr. Spear:

This email will serve as my INITIAL response to your email below and letter attached:

1. I reserve my right to retain and consult with my own legal counsel;
2. Given that I have not retained, nor consulted with my own legal counsel (or any other counsel...legal or other), I do not, at this time, assert or waive my legislative privilege in this case. As such, going forward, I solely retain the right to assert or waive my legislative privilege. I ask that you, Intervenor's counsel, continue "withholding these emails on the basis of legislative privilege" until I assert or waive my legislative privilege to them;
3. Sending me the below email at 7:12 PM on Tuesday, April 6, 2015 and asking me to respond "no later than noon on April 10, 2015", or in 3.5 days is an unreasonable request (and I, as a legal layman, would initially think it is legally unenforceable). Your request is especially unreasonable given that it is the week after Easter when so many (including lawyers) are on Spring Break and I do not possess (much less my legal counsel possesses) my "responsive" emails that are the subject of your discovery;
4. Per your letter attached, I "would like to see (possesses in digital form per me) any (all per me) emails sent to or from you (me per me) deemed responsive so far". Please email me, all my "responsive" emails at this email address with a Cc to deljmassie@house.virginia.gov. Please also email me any "additional responsive documents after the date of this correspondence";
5. With respect to future communication, please use jpm.72@house.virginia.gov as my primary email address and always Cc deljmassie@house.virginia.gov.

Please acknowledge receipt of this email via reply email.
